

NVIAC– CODE OF CONDUCT

We as players, coaches, parents, and spectators will strive to observe the following ideals of sportsmanship:

- a) We shall try to discern what is pleasing to Jesus Christ.
- b) We shall not take part in any derogatory or taunting activity. (Federation-rule penalties will be applied for foul and/or profane language.)
- c) We shall treat the officials, opposing teams, cheerleaders, and spectators with respect.
- d) We shall address officials' decisions in a respectful manner (words, tone of voice, facial expressions).
- e) We shall respect the property and reputation of our opponents as well as that of our own facilities.
- f) We shall not take part in or be party to any form of violence.
- g) We shall encourage aggressive (hard-working) play, but not tolerate dangerous or out-of-control play.
- h) We shall address disputes in a Christlike manner as soon as possible between the parties involved.

NVIAC– CODE OF CONDUCT

We as players, coaches, parents, and spectators will strive to observe the following ideals of sportsmanship:

- a) We shall try to discern what is pleasing to Jesus Christ.
- b) We shall not take part in any derogatory or taunting activity. (Federation-rule penalties will be applied for foul and/or profane language.)
- c) We shall treat the officials, opposing teams, cheerleaders, and spectators with respect.
- d) We shall address officials' decisions in a respectful manner (words, tone of voice, facial expressions).
- e) We shall respect the property and reputation of our opponents as well as that of our own facilities.
- f) We shall not take part in or be party to any form of violence.
- g) We shall encourage aggressive (hard-working) play, but not tolerate dangerous or out-of-control play.
- h) We shall address disputes in a Christlike manner as soon as possible between the parties involved.